Conditions of Entry

The wearing of buoyancy aids is mandatory and helms must decide whether they are capable of sailing in the prevailing conditions.

The provision of support boats or any safety equipment either afloat or ashore is neither a guarantee that assistance will be rendered to any competitor in need, nor acceptance of any responsibility for rescue of competitors. Support crew will not be responsible for any damage to boat or injury persons.

I agree to be bound by the ISAF Racing Rules, the RYA prescriptions and sailing instructions. I acknowledge that it is my sole inescapable responsibility to ensure the safety of my craft. I declare that full racing insurance including third party insurance is maintained in full force and effect. I am aware of the conditions of entry and accept them.
